Charity Trustee Position

Who we are?

The International Collaboration for Community Health Nursing Research (ICCHNR) supports community nurses worldwide through its international network of nurse researchers, international conferences, fund raising activities and scholarships for community health care nursing research in Lower- and Middle-Income Countries to advance and share knowledge and evidence-based practice of community health care nursing.

ICCHNR is committed to Equality, Diversity and Inclusion and welcomes applications from all members of the community regardless of age, (dis)ability, race, ethnicity, gender, sexuality or faith.

The Role

ICCHNR are seeking 3 new trustees with the personal skills and experience needed to ensure that the charity is forward thinking well-run and efficient. We would welcome applications from individuals with expertise in the legal, finance, business and enterprise, social media and marketing fields. You will be required to: -

- Oversee all aspects of the charity and play a leading role in its ongoing development.
- Engage closely and effectively in the activities and workings of ICCHNR
- Determine the strategic direction of the charity through ethical and transparent governance
- Engage in clear strategic planning and evaluation of goal achievement against specified goals
Have an understanding of the charity, its structure and operation, in the context of the global arena of community nursing and research.
- Assist the Co-Directors and other Trustees in ensuring that the board of Trustees fulfils its responsibilities under Charity Law as Trustees.
- Effectively govern the charity and monitor the implementation and impact of decisions as a Trustee
- Regular attendance and active participation in committee and sub-committees is required and leadership of specific work streams.
- You are not required to have a nursing background but interest and personal experience of nursing would be a consideration.
